SPEAKING · Part 2 — descrever uma foto e sua experiência

O que é: mostram uma foto; você a descreve (~45s) e responde a perguntas sobre sua experiência. Avaliam tarefa, gramática, vocabulário, fluência e pronúncia.

Modelo (uma estrutura que serve para qualquer foto):

- 1) Descreva: “This photo shows... In the foreground... while in the background...”
- 2) Especule: “It looks as though... / They appear to be...”
- 3) Personalize: “It reminds me of a time when...”
- 4) Conclua com uma opinião: “What I find interesting is... / All in all, ...”

Exemplo · tema: “A group of people working together in a modern office.”

B1

“This photo shows some people in an office. They are working on computers and talking. They look happy. It reminds me of my job because I also work with other people. I think working in a team is good because you can help each other.”

B2

“This photo shows a group of colleagues working together in a modern, open-plan office. In the foreground, two of them are discussing something on a laptop, while the others focus on their own tasks. They seem quite relaxed, which suggests a friendly atmosphere. It reminds me of when I did an internship in a similar place. Although teamwork can be challenging, I believe it makes you more productive because you share ideas.”

C1

“This image captures a group of professionals collaborating in what appears to be a contemporary, open-plan workspace. In the foreground, two colleagues are deep in conversation over a laptop, whereas the rest seem engrossed in their individual work. Judging by their body language, I’d say they have built a strong rapport. It brings to mind the period when I was juggling a team project at university. While teamwork undeniably has its drawbacks — clashing opinions, for instance — I am convinced that, on balance, it brings out the best in people.”

WRITING · Part 4 — dois e-mails: informal e formal

O que é: sobre a mesma situação você escreve dois e-mails: um informal (~50 palavras) a um amigo e um formal (~120-150 palavras) a uma organização. A chave é a mudança de registro.

Modelo:

Informal: “Hi [name], / Guess what! ... / Anyway, ... / Write back soon, / [you]”

Formal: “Dear Sir or Madam, / I am writing to ... / Firstly, ... Furthermore, ... / I would be grateful if you could ... / I look forward to your reply. / Yours faithfully, [full name]”

Situação de exemplo: “Sua biblioteca local vai fechar.”

Informal (~50 palavras):

“Hi Sam, Have you heard the news? They want to shut down our local library! I can’t believe it — I practically grew up there. I’m thinking of signing the petition and writing to the council. Fancy joining me? Let me know! Alex”

Formal — a mesma tarefa, por nível:

B1

“Dear Sir or Madam, I am writing about the library. I heard it will close. I think this is a bad idea because many people use it. Students study there and children borrow books. Please do not close it. I hope you will think about this. Yours faithfully, Alex García”

B2

“Dear Sir or Madam, I am writing to express my concern about the planned closure of our local library. Firstly, it is an essential resource for students who have no quiet place to study at home. Furthermore, it offers free activities for children and the elderly, which bring the community together. I would therefore be grateful if the council could reconsider this decision. I look forward to your reply. Yours faithfully, Alex García”

C1

“Dear Sir or Madam, I am writing to voice my strong opposition to the proposed closure of our local library. While I appreciate that the council is under budgetary pressure, I would urge you to consider the far-reaching consequences such a decision would entail. Not only does the library serve as a vital study space for students who lack suitable facilities at home, but it also fosters social cohesion through its programmes for children and senior citizens. Were it to close, many of the most vulnerable members of our community would be left without a lifeline. I would therefore be most grateful if you could reconsider, or at least explore alternative cost-saving measures. I look forward to your response. Yours faithfully, Alex García”
