- 1) Hi Tom, thanks for the warm welcome! Yes, I'm completely new to the group. I usually shoot in the early morning when the light is best, but I'm flexible. It would be great to head out and take some photos together sometime.
- 2) A group dinner sounds like a brilliant idea, count me in! It's always easier to get to know people in a relaxed setting rather than during a busy session. Just let me know the date and I'll happily book it off.
- 3) Honestly, don't worry too much, everyone feels a bit nervous at first, myself included. This group is incredibly welcoming and people are more than happy to help beginners. Just turn up to the first session and I'm sure you'll feel at home in no time.

EMAIL 1 — Informal (to a friend, ~50 words)

Hi Sara,

Have you heard they've moved the sessions to 8 a.m.? I'm not thrilled, to be honest, it's way too early after work! Are you planning to keep going? Maybe we could push for an evening slot instead. Let me know what you reckon!

Daniel

EMAIL 2 — Formal (to the club manager, ~120-150 words)

Dear Mr Davies,

I am writing regarding the recent change to our session times, which now take place at 8 a.m. on weekdays. While I appreciate that the decision was no doubt made for good reasons, I would like to raise a concern on behalf of several members.

For those of us who work full-time, an early-morning session is extremely difficult to attend, and I fear attendance may drop as a result. Many members originally joined precisely because the evening sessions fitted neatly around their jobs.

Would it be possible to retain at least one evening session each week, alongside the new morning times? I am confident this would suit a far wider range of members.

Thank you for considering my request.

Yours sincerely,

Daniel Ruiz
